

VETERANS AND MILITARY FAMILY FOR PROGRESS (VMFP) PRIVACY POLICY

The Internet contains a wealth of information, unfortunately, it may also contain personal details about you that you don't want everyone to know. For example, your real name (lots of people on the Internet use aliases, alter egos or nicknames), street address, phone number, or e-mail address. When you go online, sites you visit may be gathering information about you without your knowledge. At VMFP we strive to help our customers protect their privacy while using our services.

VMFP's policy is to respect and protect the privacy of our users. This policy statement tells you how we collect information from you and how we use it. Using the Internet should be a fun experience and we want to help you make it so.

The information you provide to VMFP may be shared among the VMFP sites as it is our goal to make your visits to our sites easy and enjoyable. However, be assured that VMFP will not disclose your personal information to third parties without your consent. VMFP may disclose user information in special cases when we have reason to believe that disclosing this information is necessary to identify, contact or bring legal action against someone who may be causing injury to or interference with (either intentionally or unintentionally) VMFP's rights or property, other VMFP users, or anyone else that could be harmed by such activities. VMFP may disclose user information when we believe in good faith that the law requires it.

USE OF COOKIES

What are cookies? Cookies are pieces of information that a Web site transfers to an individual's hard drive for record-keeping purposes. Cookies make Web-surfing easier for you by saving your preferences while you're at our site. We never save passwords or credit card information in cookies. The use of cookies is an industry standard -- you'll find them at most major Web sites. However, VMFP does not use cookies at this time.

You may occasionally get cookies from our advertisers. VMFP does not control these cookies. The use of advertising cookies sent by third-party servers is standard in the Internet industry.

LINKS TO OTHER SITES

Users should be aware that when you are on VMFP, you could be directed to other sites that are beyond our control. There are links to other sites from VMFP pages that take you outside our service. For example, if you "click" on a banner advertisement or an VMFP search result, the "click" takes you off the VMFP site. This includes links from advertisers, sponsors and partners that may use VMFP's logo as part of a co-branding agreement. These other sites may send their own cookies to users, collect data or solicit personal information.

Please keep in mind that whenever you give out personal information online --- for example, via message boards or chat --- that information can be collected and used by people you don't know. While VMFP strives to protect its user's personal information and privacy, we cannot guarantee the security of any information you disclose online and you do so at your own risk.

VMFP's policy does not extend to anything that is inherent in the operation of the Internet, and therefore beyond VMFP's control, and is not to be applied in any manner contrary to applicable law or governmental regulation.

SECURITY

The importance of security for all personally identifiable information associated with our guests is of utmost concern to us. We exercise great care in providing secure transmission of your information from your PC to our servers. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, VMFP can't ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or from our online products or services, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your transmission, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems.

YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THESE TERMS

By using this site, you signify your assent to the VMFP Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use our sites. Your continued use of the VMFP sites following the posting of changes to these terms will mean you accept those changes
